

Chapter one of my life is over and it is on to the next one. While it is a great relief to finally be done with this stage, it is also a little sad. I had some amazing times with people I will never forget. And those times can never be relived again. But it is time to move on to the next stage and start fresh. I honestly can't express how excited I am for what is ahead of me. To all of my friends and classmates, I thank you so much for these great years and I wish you all the best in whatever you continue on too and I hope I will see you all again in the future. To my teachers, I thank you all for helping me through these past four years. I couldn't have wished for better teachers. Special thanks to Kim Sanders who has grown more into a friend than just my teacher. Thank you so much Kim for everything you have done for me. Mom and Dad, we have gone through good and bad together and through it all you have always been there for me and I can't tell you how much I love and appreciate you both. You are my mentors and have taught me almost everything I know. I look up to you both more than anyone and all I have ever strived to do in life is make you proud of the son you both raised. Sam and Ethan I now pass the torch on to you two. I am always here for you both if you ever need anything. You're not alone in this thing and you never will be. Live life to the fullest and don't leave with ANY REGRETS in life. If you made it to the end of this, then you're a homie and I love you. Peace and Love.

-Steveo

